

Announcement of Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences

Subject: The Intent on Management with Integrity and Honesty of Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences

Fiscal Year 2025

.....

Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences recognize the cultivation on moral ethics, values of Righteousness and consciousness the perform integrity and honesty in tandem with the management of the public sector in accordance with the good governance; to prevent risks of corruption and misconduct among all levels of the executives as well as the faculty staff.

Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, hereby, would like to publicly give a declaration of its intent of management with integrity and honesty; to achieve the above operations practically and effectively as well as to efficiently prevent risk of corruption and misconduct. All faculty staff - the executives, faculty staff, administrative staff, hereunder, would competently uphold their duties in accordance with good governance to prevent risks of corruption and misconduct as follows.

1. Perform the duties under the official rules, regulations, and principles, conscientiously.
2. Perform the duties in line with the good governance principles.
3. Perform the duties with integrity-denying corruptions, exploitations towards conflict of interest in one's position.
4. Uphold and implant in values and attitudes on its discernment, moral, and ethics; recognize perils of corruption, be embarrassed and afraid to commit fraud; inversely lead the university to completely free from corruptions both through policies and operations.
5. Encourage fraud investigation in operations from the outsiders with the public participation and expose all informative practices.
6. Inspect and panelize frauds, in case, in the highest degree, conscientiously. Please kindly be informed accordingly.

Announced on 14th November the 2024 BE.

N. wannakit.

(Associate Professor Nittaya Wannakit, Ph.D.)

Dean of Faculty of Humanities and Sciences